SCHOOL INFORMATION

Dominican College is a Catholic Voluntary Grammar school for girls, located in Fortwilliam Park in Belfast. Established in 1930 by the Dominican Sisters from Cabra, our school is rich in history and tradition and is continually growing and transforming to meet the needs, aptitudes, and ambitions of all our pupils. The school's enrolment figure is 1050 with an annual intake of 150 pupils in Year 8.

Our school ethos focuses on treating each pupil as an individual, celebrating their unique talents and developing their full potential across a wide range of academic and extracurricular areas. We have a long tradition of academic success and promote high aspirations, encouraging our pupils to aim for excellence in all aspects of life.

Based on our distinct Catholic and Dominican ethos, we are an inclusive community and promote values of trust, tolerance, and mutual respect. Our approach to education ensures the holistic development of each pupil, and prepares them to meet the challenges, and embrace all the opportunities in a rapidly changing world.
